The exhibition

We are football. 1874 to today. From the Miracle of Bern to the Wembley Goal. From the Game of the Century in the heat of Mexico City to the Disgrace of Gijón. From Rome to Rio. About Italy, England. And the Netherlands. About Dortmund, Bavaria, Schalke. About amazons, emancipation – and a coffee set. With »boss« Rahn and Stan Libuda, Günter Netzer and Wolfgang Overath, Klaus Fischer and »Ennatz« Dietz, Ricken and Raúl, Lahm and Podolski – and Mario Götze. A single ball. 1,000 stories. And no end in sight.

Hospitality

Breakfast, lunch or half time break: Enjoy a diverse menu of meals and beverages in our Shop & Bistro in the foyer of the museum on all days of opening from 10am–6pm. Our recipes are based on selected regional products. We offer child-oriented servings as well as vegetarian and vegan dishes. Additionally, the N11 event space and N11 Grill on the museum forecourt are open on weekends and holidays. Guests do not need a museum ticket to access the areas of hospitality.

Events

You want to go even further? No problem! Meet current and former football stars up close with our culture program ANSTOSS (KICKOFF). Quiz with Ben Redelings and sing with Tommy Finke. Watch films with and by Sönke Wortmann and be one of the first to hear passages from Matthias Sammer's new book. Be right in the middle when coaches and players discuss with fans and philosophers.
